

LEADERSHIP FOR A FUTURE

▶▶▶ WHO

Members of labor and labor-adjacent organizations who have a desire to learn new, and reinforce already existing, organizing and advocacy skills.

▶▶▶ WHAT

An organizing development program for current and emerging leaders that fosters diverse connections and relationships while providing participants with the skills necessary to "become the change they wish to see" in Rhode Island.

▶▶▶ WHEN

One overnight weekend retreat in late winter, and ten Monday evening sessions running from 4:30 PM to 8:30 PM (dinner included). Sessions begin in March and end in May.

▶▶▶ WHERE

Weekly Sessions:
Institute for Labor Studies and Research
1540 Pontiac Ave., Suite A. Cranston RI, 02920

▶▶▶ SESSION TOPICS

- 1 Labor Organizing & Planning
- 2 History of Communities & Labor in RI
- 3 Story of Self, Us, & Now
- 4 Intro to Community Action Projects
- 5 Lobbying for Change
- 6 Organizing in the Digital Age
- 7 Building Programs & Initiatives
- 8 Solidarity Forever
- 9 BIPOC History in Rhode Island
- 10 Day of Action at the Statehouse

TO APPLY, FILL OUT
OUR INTEREST FORM
BY SCANNING THE
QR CODE BELOW:

